

Saturday 17th & Sunday 18th June 2017

Ulverstone Civic Centre

Patrick Street, Ulverstone

10am – 4pm

APPLICATION FORM

All artists must be financial members of Leven Regional Arts inc.

The exhibition demonstrates the range of creative activity and talent in our region, and brings it to a wider audience. It is an excellent opportunity for networking between artists of diverse genres.

In addition to static and working displays of visual and fine arts and crafts, the exhibition features a selection of supporting music and vocal performance, the spoken word and its signature Creative Fashion element which will feature on both days.

Applications are invited from all creative artists living and working in Northern Tasmania.

Entry Fees

$30 for both days includes a display space with a 1.8m table and 1 chair.

Applications

Please complete the attached Application Form and Statement of Expectation. Application form must be returned no later than Friday 7th. April 2017

Successful applicants will be notified by Friday 14th. April 2017

On payment of your invoice your space will be secured.

STATEMENT OF EXPECTATION

1. While some assistance will be available, exhibitors are required to set up their own displays. The venue will be open on Thursday 15th & Friday 16th. June for exhibitors to set up.
2. High standard of presentation is required. Use clean, crease-free table covers and hide storage and packing from public view.
3. Designated opening and closing times must be strictly adhered to. Artists must attend, with displays fully set up, for the whole period of public opening on BOTH days.
4. Artists are required to ensure that their displays are manned for the full period of public opening. Please make your own arrangements for a stand-in during any unavoidable absences.
5. All exhibitors must be members of Leven Regional Arts.
6. Artists who do not have an EFTPOS facility may use the LRA service. The normal 10% commission will be through the transaction and the artist will be paid by cheque at the beginning of July along with normal gallery artist payments.
7. Sales will be subject to a commission of 10% payable by cash or cheque at the close of the exhibition on the final day. This will be collected by a LRA member carrying an 'honesty bag'.

All artists are to create a happy, healthy, friendly environment – enjoy the days.
